SECTION 1. Purpose. The purpose of this ordinance is to designate the month of February as "Mahina Ōlelo Hawai'i" (Hawaiian Language Month) to celebrate and encourage the use of the Hawaiian language.

In the second half of the 19th century, the Hawaiian nation was among the most literate in the world. Tragically, three years after the overthrow of the Hawaiian monarchy in 1893, Hawaiian was outlawed as a language of education in Hawai'i.

In 1978, the Hawai'i State Constitution was amended to recognize the Hawaiian language as one of the two official languages of the State of Hawai'i.

To save the Hawaiian language, a number of historic initiatives were launched, including 'Aha Pūnana Leo's Hawaiian language immersion preschools, the Department of Education's Hawaiian language immersion program, and the Hawaiian language programs of the University of Hawai'i system.

Several important gubernatorial proclamations on 'Ōlelo Hawai'i were issued in the 1990s. In 1994 and 1995, gubernatorial proclamations, written both in Hawaiian and English, were issued recognizing February 1994 and February 1995 as "Hawaiian Language Month in Hawai'i."

The following year, another gubernatorial proclamation was issued that recognized 1996 as "Year of the Hawaiian language."

BILL 11(2022)

A BILL FOR AN ORDINANCE

---

In 2007, the Board of Regents of the University of Hawai'i established the Hawai'iinuiākea School of Hawaiian Knowledge.

In 2013, the Hawaii State Legislature passed, and the Governor approved, Act 28, declaring February as Mahina 'Ōlelo Hawai'i.

While the Hawaiian language revitalization movement has made major strides in the last 40 years, for 'Ōlelo Hawai'i to not just survive, but to also thrive, more people need to speak Hawaiian and have spaces and occasions to celebrate and use it.

SECTION 2. Chapter 1, Revised Ordinances of Honolulu 1990 ("General Provisions"), is amended by adding a new article to be appropriately designated by the Revisor of Ordinances and to read as follows:

"Article ___. Mahina 'Ōlelo Hawai'i

'Ōlelo Hawai'i Month. The month of February shall be known and designated as "Ōlelo Hawai'i Month" to celebrate and encourage the use of Hawaiian language. This month is not and shall not be construed as a city holiday."
