

SUMMARY OF PROPOSED COMMITTEE DRAFT:
BILL 57 (2022)
RELATING TO THE PUBLIC CARRY OF FIREARMS.

THE PROPOSED CD1 makes the following amendments:

- A. Updates the bill to reflect that the bill is amending the Revised Ordinances of Honolulu 2021 instead of the Revised Ordinances of Honolulu 1990.
- B. In SECTION 2 of the bill:
 - 1. Revises § 41-___.2 to add the definition of "Public Place" and delete the definition of "Public Place" contained in list item (6) in the definition of "Sensitive Places."
 - 2. Revises § 41-___.5 to replace "firearm" with "pistol or revolver" in the title of this section and its subsections (c)(4) and (5) to be consistent with the use of "pistol or revolver" in subsection (a).
- C. Makes miscellaneous technical and nonsubstantive amendments.

A BILL FOR AN ORDINANCE

RELATING TO THE PUBLIC CARRY OF FIREARMS.

BE IT ORDAINED by the People of the City and County of Honolulu:

SECTION 1. Purpose. The purpose of this ordinance is to define those sensitive locations within the City and County of Honolulu ("City") where the carrying of firearms is prohibited, consistent with an individual's Second Amendment right to bear arms and the United States Supreme Court's ruling in New York State Rifle & Pistol Association, Inc. v. Bruen, 142 S. Ct. 2111 (2022).

It is the further purpose of this ordinance to protect sensitive areas that have traditionally been subject to restrictions on carrying or possessing arms therein; to protect health, life, and property; and to preserve the order and security of the City, its inhabitants, and its visitors.

It is the further purpose of this ordinance to facilitate communication to the public of decisions by private businesses and charitable establishments in permitting or restricting firearms on their property. Inasmuch as the public's expectations have been shaped by legal restrictions on public carry that have been in place in Hawai'i for 170 years (see 1852 Haw. Sess. Laws Act of May 25, 1852, § 1 at 19), setting a default rule for businesses and charitable establishments that is consistent with these public expectations will ease public confusion and avoid individual confrontations, while facilitating private decision-making by businesses and charitable establishments.

SECTION 2. Chapter 41, Revised Ordinances of Honolulu 2021 ("Public Health and Safety"), is amended by adding a new article to be appropriately designated by the Revisor of Ordinances and to read as follows:

"ARTICLE __: PUBLIC CARRY OF FIREARMS

§ 41-__.1 Declaration of legislative intent.

It is declared to be the intent of this article to protect sensitive areas that have traditionally been subject to restrictions on the carrying or possessing of firearms therein; to facilitate private decision-making by businesses and charitable establishments on the carrying or possessing of arms on their private property; to protect health, life, and property; and to preserve the order and security of the city, its inhabitants, and its visitors.

A BILL FOR AN ORDINANCE

§ 41-___.2 Definitions.

For the purposes of this article, the following definitions apply unless the context clearly indicates or requires a different meaning.

§ 41-__3 Prohibition against the public carrying of firearms in sensitive places.

- (a) Prohibition. Except as otherwise provided by federal or State law, it is a violation of this article for any person to intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly carry on their person a firearm, concealed or unconcealed, in any sensitive place.
- (b) Exceptions. This prohibition does not apply to:
 - (1) Persons exempted from HRS § 134-9 pursuant to HRS § 134-11; and
 - (2) Detectives, private detectives, investigators, and guards, authorized by the chief of police to carry a firearm in a particular sensitive place, while on duty in that sensitive place.
- (c) Criminal penalties; enforcement.
 - (1) Any person violating this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.
 - (2) A law enforcement officer may arrest an alleged violator of any provision of this section or may issue a citation in lieu of arrest, as provided in HRS § 803-6.
 - (3) In any prosecution, it is an affirmative defense that the person was exempt from the prohibition in subsection (a) pursuant to subsection (b).
 - (4) The presence of a person at any sensitive place in subsection (a) is prima facie evidence that the person knows it is a sensitive place.

§ 41-__4 Prohibition against the public carry of firearms on private businesses' or charitable establishments' premises without express consent.

- (a) Prohibition. Except as otherwise provided by federal or State law, it is a violation of this article for any person to intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly carry on their person a firearm, concealed or unconcealed, on the premises of any business establishment or charitable establishment unless the business establishment or charitable establishment, or an agent thereof, has expressly consented thereto. Express consent may include signage.
- (b) For the purposes of this section, "the premises of any business establishment or charitable establishment" includes all appurtenant grounds and parking lots of the business establishment or charitable establishment, but does not include privately owned or maintained streets or sidewalks.

A BILL FOR AN ORDINANCE

- (c) Exceptions. This prohibition does not apply to:
- (1) Persons exempted from HRS § 134-9 pursuant to HRS § 134-11; and
 - (2) Detectives, private detectives, investigators, and guards, authorized by the chief of police to carry a firearm in a particular sensitive place, while on duty in that sensitive place.
- (d) Criminal penalties; enforcement.
- (1) Any person violating this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.
 - (2) A law enforcement officer may arrest an alleged violator of any provision of this section or may issue a citation in lieu of arrest, as provided in HRS § 803-6.
 - (3) In any prosecution, it is an affirmative defense that the person was exempt from the prohibition in subsection (a) pursuant to subsection (c).
 - (4) The presence of a person on the premises of any business establishment or charitable establishment is prima facie evidence that the person knows it is the premises of a business establishment or charitable establishment.

§ 41-___.5 Prohibition against the public carry of a pistol or revolver without possession of license to carry.

- (a) Prohibition. Except as otherwise provided by federal or State law, it is a violation of this article for any person who has a valid license to knowingly, intentionally, or recklessly carry on their person a pistol or revolver outside the person's residence without having a valid license in the person's immediate possession, or to fail to display same upon the demand of a law enforcement officer.
- (b) Exceptions. This prohibition does not apply to:
- (1) Persons exempted from HRS § 134-9 pursuant to HRS § 134-11; and
 - (2) Qualified law enforcement officers and qualified retired law enforcement officers pursuant to 18 USC §§ 926B and 926C and HRS Chapter 134 who have documentation regarding their qualifications in their immediate possession.

A BILL FOR AN ORDINANCE

(c) Criminal penalties; enforcement.

- (1) Any person violating this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.
- (2) A law enforcement officer may arrest an alleged violator of any provision of this section or may issue a citation in lieu of arrest, as provided in HRS § 803-6.
- (3) In any prosecution, it is an affirmative defense that the person was exempt from the prohibition in subsection (a) pursuant to subsection (b).
- (4) The failure of a person to have a valid license in the person's immediate possession while carrying on their person a pistol or revolver outside the person's residence is prima facie evidence that the person knows the person is carrying the pistol or revolver in public without possession of the person's license.
- (5) The failure of a person to display the person's license upon the demand of a law enforcement officer while carrying on their person a pistol or revolver outside the person's residence is prima facie evidence that the person has knowingly, intentionally, and recklessly failed to display the license.

§ 41-___.6 Severability.

Every provision in this article and every application of the provisions in this article is severable from each other as a matter of law. If any provision of this article or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of this article that may be given effect without the invalid provision or application. This article must be construed to be enforceable up to, but no further than, the maximum possible extent consistent with federal and State law."
