BILL 26 (2022), CD2, FD1
PROPOSED

A BILL FOR AN ORDINANCE

RELATING TO GIFTS TO MAYOR, PROSECUTING ATTORNEY, COUNCILMEMBER, AND OFFICER OR EMPLOYEE.

BE IT ORDAINED by the People of the City and County of Honolulu:

SECTION 1. Policy and purpose. The City and County of Honolulu shall maintain the integrity of its elected and appointed officers and employees and assure the public that such officers and employees are above reproach and not subject to influence by City vendors, clients, or others. They, as agents of public purpose, shall faithfully discharge the duties of their offices regardless of personal considerations and with no expectation of gift, gratuity, reward, or other thing of value, unless exempted. Accordingly, the purpose of this ordinance is to clarify which gifts to the Mayor, the Prosecuting Attorney, Councilmembers, and other City officers and employees may be solicited or accepted.

SECTION 2. Section 1-19.7, Revised Ordinances of Honolulu 2021, is amended to read as follows:

"§ 1-19.7 Gifts to mayor, prosecuting attorney, councilmember, and [appointed] officer or employee—Prohibition under certain circumstances.

- (a) For the purposes of this section, the following definitions apply unless the context clearly indicates or requires a different meaning.

~~[Appointed Officer or Employee. An officer or employee, as defined under §1-19.1, other than an elected officer and shall include officers and employees of the board of water supply and the Honolulu Authority for Rapid Transportation. Appointed officer includes a member of a board or commission including board members of the board of water supply and the Honolulu Authority for Rapid Transportation.]~~

Body. The council, a council committee, or a city board or commission.

Domestic Partner. A person with whom another person maintains a household and an intimate relationship, other than a spouse or a civil union partner.

Financial Relationship with the City. A relationship with the city in which the person with the relationship receives or may receive funds from the city, other than a refund or rebate, or receives or may receive income from third parties as a result of the relationship. The term includes lobbying, but does not include the paying of a city tax, parking meter fee, or parking lot fee; obtaining a driver's license or identification card; automobile registration; the purchasing of a ride or pass for travel on the city's transit bus, paratransit, or rail transit system; or a similar minimal contact with the city.

Fiscal Year. The one-year period beginning on July 1 of one calendar year and ending on June 30 of the following calendar year.

Gift. Any gift, whether in the form of money, goods, a service, a loan, travel, entertainment, hospitality, thing[,] of value, favor, gratuity, commission, or promise [or] of a gift in such form or any other form.

Indirectly. Receipt of a gift to a city officer's or employee's spouse, civil union partner, domestic partner, fiancé, fiancée, siblings, children, or parents; spouse's, civil union partner's, or domestic partner's children or parents; or child's or parent's spouse, civil union partner, or domestic partner.

Lobbying and Lobbyist. Have the same meaning as defined in § 3-13.2.

Negligible Value. Valued at $50 or less.

Person. Has the same meaning as defined in § 1-4.1.

Prohibited Source. Any lobbyist and any person in a financial relationship with the city, including persons with current city contracts, commercial leases with the city, and city concessions. The term does not include the employer and employee relationship of a city officer or employee with the city.

Single Source. Gifts will be deemed to be from a single source if the city officer or employee soliciting, accepting, or receiving the gifts knows or has reason to know that they are being solicited from or given by owners, partners, officers, directors, lobbyists, representatives, or agents of a single person.

(b) ~~[Neither the mayor, the prosecuting attorney, nor any appointed]~~ A city officer or employee ~~[shall]~~ may not solicit, accept, or receive, directly or indirectly, any gift under circumstances in which it can be reasonably inferred that the gift is intended:

(1) To influence the solicitor or recipient in the performance of an official duty;

(2) As a reward or gratuity for any official action on the solicitor's or recipient's part.

(c) A city officer or employee who:

(1) Has authority to grant or approve any application for a city permit, license, registration, lease, contract, variance, or similar approval;

(2) Is on a department or agency committee that has such authority or makes a recommendation to an officer or employee with such authority; or may not solicit, accept, or receive, directly or indirectly, a gift from an applicant for such city permit, license, registration, lease, contract, variance, or similar approval, or from a representative or agent of such applicant; provided that this prohibition does not apply if the city officer or employee filed a declaration of conflict of interest with respect to the consideration of the application with the ethics commission or the city clerk, has recused himself or herself from consideration of the application, and takes no action inconsistent with the recusal. This prohibition includes the period during which the application is being considered by the city and two years after the application has been granted, granted with conditions, or denied.

(3) Is a member of a body with such authority,

~~(e)~~ ~~During each [one-year period beginning on July 1 and ending on June 30, neither the mayor, the prosecuting attorney, nor any appointed] fiscal year, a city officer or employee [shall] may not solicit, accept, or receive, directly or indirectly, from [any one] a single source, any gift or gifts, not exempted by subsection [(d)],~~ (f), valued [singly or] in the aggregate in excess of [$200.] a negligible value.

(e) A city officer or employee may not solicit, and, unless exempted by subsection (f), a city officer or employee may not accept or receive, either directly or indirectly, any gift if the officer or employee knows or has reason to know that it is from a prohibited source. A city officer or employee is deemed to have reason to know that a gift is from a prohibited source if the gift is given, directly or indirectly, from:

(1) Any person registered as a lobbyist under Chapter 3, Article 13; or
