Submitted by the Department of Enterprise Services for the April 2, 2024 Kapiolani Park Trustees Meeting, Informational Briefing Item No. 2.

Tom Moffatt Waikiki Shell CNHA Hula Show

- The Council for Native Hawaiian Advancement (CNHA) currently operates a free Hula Show at the amphitheater near the entrance of the Tom Moffatt Waikiki Shell every Sunday to Thursday at 9:30 a.m. through a non exclusive rental agreement with the City and County of Honolulu Department of Enterprise Services
- The free Hula Show features a diversified cast of performers who share Hawaiian music, dance and the Hawaiian language with visitors and locals
- The rental agreement with CNHA is the City's standard form of agreement
- The current rental agreement runs January 19, 2024 to September 15, 2024
- The Waikiki Shell will close for 3-4 months starting in October 2024 for HECO's and DDC's electrical upgrade projects.
- CNHA is currently working on a proposal for an evening show

For the remainder the 2024 calendar year, Waikiki Shell bookings include: BAMP Project events, Hawaii Symphony Orchestra, Hawaii Opera Theater, The Green, national Christian artists Lauren Daigle and also Toby Mac
