Testimony: I don't know if you saw Saturday Night Live's 50th anniversary program a week or so ago. It seems E-bikes are a plague everywhere. The language of the short skit is below. Unfortunately, i can't reproduce the music but the words say it all: "You see, there's a new menace on the streets of our city. Suddenly e-bikes, they're flying around me. They're up on the sidewalk, but faster than cars. Suddenly e-bikes, they're trying to kill you, it's like a road bike from mad max, delivering alcohol." Please pass this bill.
