Aloha Kākou,

Written Testimony

Having enough affordable housing is among the top priorities in Hawaii. It is upsetting to see that so much of the new housing units going up are not affordable for local people but rather for foreign investors who are often absent most of the year and use the properties as tax shelters. This Bill, with its exceptions in situation where properties may actually be legitimately vacant for 180 days, is a way to raise much needed revenue for the City.

I support this Bill.
